

PRESENTATION PERSPECTIVE

Presentation delivery supercharging service

UPCOMING CLIENT MEETING THAT YOU SIMPLY HAVE TO ACE?
MUST-WIN NEW BUSINESS PITCH FAST APPROACHING?
PRESENTATIONS FEELING A LITTLE FLAT?

If you want to lift your presentation delivery,
Presentation Perspective has got your back!

As an experienced presenter, proven pitch winner and established new business trainer, I'll join you and your team for one or several of your presentation rehearsals, casting an empathetic but exacting eye over all elements of your delivery to give you an essential solutions-focused perspective on your work.

I'll assess your overall story, slides, scripts, style, theatre, team connection & spontaneity, audience targeting & involvement and more, passionately championing both the stand-out components and the individual moments of presenting brilliance, while sensitively highlighting elements that could be enhanced or improved.

During the rehearsal(s), I'll observe & listen intently and take plenty of notes. Following the rehearsal(s), I'll invite you and your team to reflect on how you feel things went, engage everyone in a solutions-based conversation where I'll share a helpful (rather than an unnerving or unmanageable) volume of feedback focused on the most important elements, encourage and coach staff of all levels, suggest likely questions you might face and ultimately, take both your presentation and your presenters to the next level.

Presentation Perspective is charged at £100 per hour (in-person) or £75 per hour (online).
